

Know your workplace rights:

The right to know

about hazards in your workplace

The right to participate in health & safety discussions

The right to refuse

unsafe work

These rights are protected under The Saskatchewan Employment Act.

SGEU

Occupational Health
& Safety Committee

If you are injured at work, you should:

1

Get medical attention immediately if you need it.

2

Report your injury to your employer immediately.

3

Report your injury to the WCB by completing the Worker's Initial Report of Injury (W1) form immediately

For more information, visit our website

SGEU

Occupational Health
& Safety Committee