CODE OF ETHICS FOR ELECTED OFFICIALS OF SGEU

PREAMBLE

Unions today play a vital role in the improvement of living and working conditions of all Canadians. Much of our present standard of living and many of the social benefits we all enjoy have come about from organizing and educational work done by our predecessors in the union movement.

Trade unions are the legitimate voice of Canadian workers. In this context, trade unions have had an extremely difficult and controversial role in today's society. As such, unions are subject to more scrutiny on actions taken by our elected officials than any other democratic organization.

Officers of this Union have a responsibility to protect the members' rights and promote solidarity by keeping the membership informed and united.

SGEU expects a high standard of conduct of its elected officials and in return will, at all times, support and protect them in the performance of the duties of their office.

SGEU commits to elected officials (including stewards) to take swift action when they face retaliation or harassment.

In order to ensure that these standards are upheld, SGEU has adopted the following standards that are expected of all its elected officials.

POLICY

Officials shall be elected or appointed as provided for in the bargaining guidelines, Sector/Local Bylaws, the Constitution and the Policies of The Saskatchewan Government and General Employees' Union and accept the Oath of Office as provided for in the SGEU Constitution.

All Elected Officials shall:

1. In all aspects of Union activity, conduct themselves in accordance with Union Policy and in a manner which reflects well on SGEU and its membership.
2. Become knowledgeable in the internal structure of the Union and the applicable collective agreement.

3. Enforce the collective agreements of the various bargaining units in SGEU and shall not accept less than the negotiated provisions for the members.
4. At all times represent the members without personal bias or discrimination and observe confidentiality when dealing with sensitive matters regarding membership servicing.
5. Attend all functions, meetings and educationals when called upon by the Union, as directed by the bylaws, bargaining guidelines, policies and Constitution.
6. Reflect the official Union policy at all times when dealing with management. Co-chairpersons of Occupational Health and Safety Committees, and the membership of any other committees sanctioned by the Union shall be elected.
7. Not participate in management committees other than those sanctioned by the Union, irrespective of the name or intention of said committees.
8. Discharge their duties in the best interests of the membership, without consideration for personal gain, and shall refuse all gifts, gratuities, favours or other considerations, which might be perceived to influence decisions on union policy.
9. Shall administer the records and assets of the Union in a responsible manner, consistent with the Union's policy as developed from time to time.
10. Shall work at all times within the Union structure when expressing disagreements or criticisms about the internal workings or policy of the Union, other Union members or the paid staff of the Union.
11. Take swift action when they become aware of incidents of retaliation and harassment experienced by other elected officials and, if they themselves face harassment, report to designated union representative.

Failure to comply with these rules of conduct will be grounds for disciplinary action as provided for in the SGEU Constitution.

Approved by the SGEU Convention, May 1983
Amended by the SGEU Convention, June 1998
Amended by the SGEU Convention, April 2009

SGEU STATEMENT OF EQUALITY

Unions were formed and developed historically on the basic principle of fighting for equal treatment for all members in the union based on collective action. This basic goal has not changed.

The most effective tool to attain our goal of equality is the elimination of all forms of harassment and/or discrimination.

These cruel and discriminatory forms of behaviour weaken the Union. All too often members of our Union are perpetrators as well as victims. This destructive behaviour must stop.

The practice of any form of harassment and/or discrimination by anyone negates our ability to achieve equality and stands in stark contrast to everything positive that unions have come to represent.

Any and all forms of harassment and/or discrimination in our Union meetings/events, workplaces or communities weaken ourselves and our Union's ability to be a vehicle for social justice.

DEFINITION OF HARASSMENT

Harassment can be defined as any unwelcome or unwanted action by any person against another. It can be a verbal or physical action on a single or repeated basis, which intimidates, humiliates, insults, degrades or threatens.

"Unwelcome" or "unwanted" means any action(s) which the harasser knows or ought reasonably to know are not desired.

HARASSMENT AT SGEU MEETINGS OR EVENTS

At the commencement of each meeting/event one (1) or more Ombudsman will be designated and identified.

The mandate of the Ombudsman will be to deal with informal complaints of harassment.

To stop harassment we must make every effort to act as quickly as possible to challenge and stop offensive behaviour.

If it happens to you, take responsibility...

If possible, tell the person(s) how you feel. Be specific. Say you want the behavior to stop and try to find a solution.

Don't blame yourself. Each person is responsible for their own actions. Tell the Ombudsman. Every effort will be made to ensure confidentiality.

The Ombudsman will assist you with the informal process. Every effort will be made to deal with complaints prior to the conclusion of the event.

If unresolved, the Ombudsman may recommend that the person file a formal complaint and submit it directly to the President and/or the 1st Vice President and/or Membership/Constitution and Legislation (MC&L) Chairperson.

If you are accused of harassment take responsibility...

Stop the actions, comments or offending behaviour immediately. Each person is responsible for their own actions.

Try to resolve the issue. If you take positive action to correct your behaviour, you may want to keep a record of the steps you took.

If the Ombudsman is involved, they will assist you with the informal process. Every effort will be made to deal with complaints prior to the conclusion of the event.

If unresolved, a formal complaint may be filed against you with the President and/or the MC&L Chairperson.

HARASSMENT IN OUR WORKPLACES

All bargaining units should negotiate anti-harassment clauses in their Collective Agreements to include:

- Mechanisms to resolve disputes,
- Protection for the complainant and
- Education awareness sessions on harassment for everyone in the workplace.

HARASSMENT IN OUR COMMUNITIES

We can challenge harassment and discrimination in society at large. We have an obligation to fight for equal rights for all people by lobbying for legislative changes and working with other unions and organizations to challenged discrimination.

OUR GOAL MUST BE ZERO TOLERANCE

STATEMENT OF EQUALITY

All SGEU meetings and events will be held in an environment free of harassment and/or discrimination. SGEU has a zero tolerance for any harassing and/or discriminatory actions, behaviours and comments.

Harassment is any behaviour that undermines the dignity, self-esteem or security of an individual, or creates an intimidating, threatening, hostile or offensive environment.

Our Union will not tolerate any forms of harassment and/or discrimination which violate any person's or class of person's right to be treated with dignity and respect. Such action by a member may result in immediate expulsion from the meeting or event by the Chair or Ombudsman.
