- b) A steward or elected officer of the Union shall receive permission to leave assigned duties temporarily in order to discuss those matters covered by the grievance procedure. The matter shall be dealt with as promptly as possible while on work time.
- c) No employee, steward, or elected Union Representative shall suffer loss of pay by reason of time spent with the Employer to discuss grievances or complaints.

Grievance Process

7.5.1

Pre-Grievance

Every effort shall be made to resolve problems through dialogue at the local level prior to filing a grievance. The employee and steward shall attempt to resolve the dispute through a discussion with the Manager. The steward will advise the manager that the dialogue presents a pre-grievance of the grievance process. The manager will provide their response within 10 days of the pre-grievance discussion. No grievance shall be considered which is not presented within twenty-one (21) calendar days after the event or circumstances giving rise to the complaint comes to the attention of, or should have come to the attention of, the employee/union or employees concerned.

Both parties shall be required to provide full disclosure at each step of the procedure of all information available regarding the dispute.

At any stage during the Grievance Process the time limits may be extended by mutual agreement between the parties.

Step 1 – Filing a Grievance

Failing resolution of the dispute, the grievance shall be submitted in writing by the steward or SGEU Labour Relations Officer on behalf of the aggrieved to the Director of Service Delivery or designate within thirty (30) calendar days of failure of resolution at the local level.

The Director of Service Delivery or designate shall render a written decision to the SGEU Labour Relations Officer with a copy to the grievor and steward within fifteen (15) calendar days of receipt of the grievance.

Step 2 – Meeting:

Upon receipt of the Step 1 letter, the SGEU Labour Relations Officer within thirty (30) calendar days may request a meeting with the Executive Director or designate. The meeting shall be scheduled within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of the request. Upon mutual agreement of the parties, additional meetings may be required.

The meeting will include the grievor, steward, the SGEU Labour Relations Officer and the employer representative(s).

The meeting will:

- attempt to ascertain the facts and negotiate a resolution
- if possible, agree to a joint statement of facts
- based on the meeting the SGEU Labour Relations Officer and the Executive Director or designate may agree in writing to mediate the dispute

If settlement is not reached at Step 2, the Executive Director or designate shall render the decision in writing within fifteen (15) calendar days of the meeting.

Step 3 – Mediation

If settlement is not reached at Step 2, the SGEU Labour Relations Officer and the Executive Director or designate may agree to apply for Mediation within thirty (30) calendar days.

Step 4 – Arbitration

If settlement is not reached, the SGEU Labour Relations Officer within thirty (30) calendar days may apply for Arbitration.

The grievor(s) and steward shall receive leave with pay to attend grievance meetings with the Employer.

It is agreed that any member(s) of the paid staff of the Union may assist at any step of the grievance procedure.

Special Measures

- a) Nothing in this Article precludes the parties from modifying the grievance procedure if another administrative step is required and agreed upon between the Employer and the Union.

- b) Either party may initiate a meeting for the purpose of resolving the grievance prior to or during the grievance, mediation, or arbitration proceedings.

7.6 Deviation from Grievance Procedure

After a grievance has proceeded to Step 1 by the Union, the Employer's representatives shall not enter into discussions or negotiations with respect to the grievance, either directly or indirectly with the aggrieved employee.

7.7 Failure to Act Within Time Limits

If the initiator of the grievance fails to follow the time limit and procedure, the grievance shall be deemed to have been withdrawn. Where the recipient of the grievance fails to respond within the prescribed time limits, the grievance shall advance to the next step. However, the time limits may be extended by mutual agreement between parties.

7.8 Changes to the Agreement

Any mutually agreed changes to the Collective Agreement shall form part of this Collective Agreement and are subject to the Grievance Procedure.

7.9 Access to Grievance Information from Employer

The employer shall provide to the Union or Steward relevant payroll information when requested in writing and accompanied by signed authorization of the employee concerned.

ARTICLE 8 MEDIATION-ARBITRATION

8.1 Mediation

The best resolution to disagreements or disputes is a solution worked out between the parties.

The parties by mutual agreement may engage mediation services to resolve a grievance. The mediator will be agreed to by the Employer and the Union, and the costs associated with the mediation process will be equally shared between the parties.

8.1.1 Selection of a Mediator

The parties will reach agreement on a mutually acceptable mediator as needed. If agreement cannot be obtained between the parties, then either party can apply to the Minister of Labour to have a mediator appointed.

8.1.2 Role of the Mediator

The role of the mediator is to assist the parties to achieve a mutually acceptable resolution of the grievance.

8.1.3 Rules Applicable to Grievance Mediation

Any document provided prior to or during the mediation will be returned to the issuing party at the conclusion of the mediation process.

Settlements reached at mediation will not be considered a precedent or normal practice and will not be raised in support of any future grievance.

Anything said or done at mediation will not be used against either the Employer, employee, or the Union at any subsequent arbitration.

At any subsequent arbitration hearing or any hearing on the matter by the Labour Relations Board, the mediator will not be a witness.

No transcripts or records will be kept by the mediator other than the mediation occurred, when, where, the parties to the dispute and whether settlement was achieved.

Parties to the mediation will have the authority to conclude a settlement at mediation.

8.1.4 Grievance Mediation Process

The mediator will provide an introduction of the mediation process, e.g. – concept, ground rules, process, and questions.

The process will be determined by the parties to the mediation with respect to the collective agreement, opportunities to comment, and meeting as a group or individually with the mediator.

If a settlement can be reached, the terms of the settlement will be put in writing and signed by the parties.

If no agreement is possible, the mediator will verbally set out respective positions, and points of difference.

The mediator may shut down the mediation process if it appears resolution is unlikely.

8.2 Arbitration

8.2.1 Selection of an Arbitrator

The parties will reach agreement on a mutually acceptable arbitrator as needed. If agreement cannot be obtained between the parties, then either party can apply to the Minister of Labour to have an arbitrator appointed.

8.2.2 Procedure

The arbitrator shall fix a time and place of sittings, after consultation with the parties.

The arbitrator shall determine the procedure but shall give full opportunity to all parties to present evidence and make representations. The arbitrator shall, as much as possible, follow a layperson's procedure and shall avoid legalistic or formal procedure.

The arbitrator shall have the power to allow all pertinent information to the grievance and the power to waive formal procedural irregularities in the processing of a grievance, in order to determine the real matter in dispute and to render a decision according to equitable principles and the justice of the case.

APPENDIX B – PROCEDURE FOR HANDLING HARASSMENT COMPLAINTS

- a) All complaints of harassment shall be covered under this procedure and dealt with in a serious manner.
- b) Leave without loss of pay for employees shall be allowed by the Employer for any proceedings under this procedure.
- c) The Employer will be committed to ensuring that all parties involved in harassment proceedings are protected from intimidation or repercussion once an incident has been reported, as well as during and following an investigation.
- d) In the event that the alleged harasser and the complainant are members of the Union, the Employer agrees to allow each their right to Union representation.

Procedure:

- a) Any worker who believes that they have been subjected to harassment is encouraged to attempt resolution at a local level.
- b) Where the above cannot be done, or when not successful in stopping the harassment, any complaint may be lodged in confidence with their direct report. In either case, the recipient of the complaint shall notify the alleged harasser of the complaint.
- c) The complaint shall be investigated, and an honest attempt will be made to achieve resolution.
- d) If a satisfactory resolution is achieved, the process will be considered complete.
- e) If a satisfactory resolution cannot be achieved informally, a formal approach will be considered in consultation with the Union

Process

It is agreed that as a general principle the alleged harasser be the one removed from the immediate assigned work area. However, in exceptional circumstances (factors such as the emotional and mental health of the complainant), the complainant may be removed.

An opportunity will be provided for all affected parties to be heard, in whatever manner is deemed appropriate.

A response containing a decision will be provided to the affected parties and the Union.

As this process for resolution of a complaint is similar to the grievance procedure, a complainant is precluded from using the grievance procedure in cases of a complaint of harassment.

NOTE: Confidentiality shall not preclude one's ability to investigate or accumulate information regarding any case investigated under this procedure.
