SHAWNA NORTH MEMORIAL BURSARY

Anand Vaid Memorial Bursary - $1000

Anand, like most who get involved with the union, began as a steward in the 90's at the Wascana Campus in Regina. He listened to his brother and sister co-workers and their plights and wanted to do more to assist them understand and learn more about their rights and their collective agreement. Anand branched out to serve on several committees to assist others and also gain a better understanding how best to represent his co-workers.

Anand served on his campus executive committee and became a bargaining committee representative, where he continued to raise issues and gain valuable insight by listening to others throughout SGEU to assist those that he represented not only locally, but provincially as long as he was with us.

Tracey Kurtenbach Bursary - $1,000

Tracey started her work as a steward for the members of the Professional Services bargaining unit and then as the local campus chairperson. She went on to become the bargaining committee chairperson and steered the membership through many significant changes and events.

Tracey was a tenacious fighter for the collective rights of the membership as well as for individual members who needed her. She was the one of the best negotiators ever to have led an SGEU bargaining unit. Her ability to think several steps ahead in any situation and her attention to detail ensured the membership was never left in a weak position. To the very end she always placed the membership and their needs above her own.

Shawna North Bursary - $1,500

Shawna was a very vocal and active member at the Moose Jaw Campus of Saskatchewan Polytechnic. She started as a steward at the then-named SIAST Palliser Campus. She worked hard to support the local members and went on to become campus chair in 2009. She then joined the bargaining team and successfully negotiated three collective agreements. She was elected as the vice president of the education sector in 2010. She ran unopposed bi-annually every term, and she continued in this position until the time of her passing. Shawna can best be described as passionate in her support of members and their rights.

The $1,000.00 ANAND VAID Memorial Bursary, the $1,000.00 TRACEY KURTENBACH Memorial Bursary and the $1500.00 SHAWNA NORTH Memorial Bursary is open to SGEU Education Sector members in good standing or a member's dependent that is accepted in any post-secondary program at any approved public institution in Saskatchewan for programs starting between July 1 and June 30.
