The parties recognize the advantages of openness and full disclosure throughout the grievance process in order to resolve issues in a timely and positive manner.

10.1 Step 1

Union members shall endeavour to settle grievances through appropriate administrative channels (Principal and/or Superintendent, Student Achievement) before a formal claim is filed. Should such attempts fail to resolve the matter, the Union may file the grievance with the Superintendent, Human Resources and Workplace Diversity, within 30 calendar days from the event giving rise to the grievance. The Superintendent, Human Resources and Workplace Diversity, shall arrange a meeting with the Union within five working days of the filing of the grievance. The Superintendent, Human Resources, shall give a written decision within five working days of the meeting or within such other mutually agreed upon time.

10.2 Step 2

In the event that the Superintendent, Human Resources and Workplace Diversity, does not give a decision satisfactory to the Union, or does not render a decision within the period prescribed above, the Union may, within ten working days, then refer the written grievance to the Deputy Director of Division Services or designate.

The Deputy Director of Division Services, or designate, shall discuss the grievance with the Union, where such is desired by either party (with the employee(s) concerned present or absent at their option), shall render a written decision within ten working days of being notified of the grievance, provided however, that if circumstances warrant, this time prescribed may be extended by mutual agreement.

Failing satisfactory resolution in Step 2, the Union may within ten consecutive days of receipt of the decision of the Deputy Director of Division Services forward a written claim of grievance and redress sought to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Board.

The Secretary-Treasurer shall submit the written claim to the Board at its next regular meeting for consideration. The Board will within 21 consecutive days of this regular meeting, review the grievance and the Union may have its representative and the employee or employees concerned present at the review hearing. A decision of the Board with respect to the grievance will be forwarded within ten consecutive days from the review date or within such time as may be mutually agreed upon.

10.4 Step 4

Any grievance which is not settled by the procedure set out above, may be referred to a Board of Arbitration by either party to this Agreement or referred to an expedited arbitration procedure as per Article 10.8. Application for the establishment of a Board of Arbitration must be made by either party within ten calendar days from the date the decision of the Board is rendered.

The Board of Arbitration shall be set up in accordance with Section 26 of The Saskatchewan Employment Act, all amendments to apply.

When either party applies for the establishment of a Board of Arbitration, each party shall pay the fees and expenses of their own nominee and witness (if any), and shall pay one-half of the cost of the fees and expenses of the Chairperson.

10.5 Grievance Time

It is the desire of both parties to this Agreement to resolve grievances in a manner that is just and equitable, and it is not the intention of either the Employer or the Union to evade settlement of disputes on a procedural technicality. However, notwithstanding the forgoing, it is clearly understood that time limits established herein are for the sake of procedural orderliness and are to be adhered to. Should either party fail to adhere to the time limits, the onus is on that party to show a justifiable reason for its failure to adhere to such limits.

10.6 Accessibility to Board Premises

All reasonable arrangements will be made to permit a Union officer, who is in the process of presenting a grievance, to have access to any part of the Board's premises to view any working conditions which may be relevant to the settlement of a grievance.

10.7

Arbitration Limits

The arbitrators shall have power to deal only with matters involving the interpretation, application or violation of this Agreement, and shall not rule on any other matter; nor shall they have the right to alter, amend, set aside, add to, or delete from, any of the provisions herein contained; nor to render any decision which is inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

10.8

Expedited Arbitration/Mediation

- a) The parties may mutually agree to refer a grievance to expedited arbitration/mediation.
- b) The parties may mutually agree to a single arbitrator who shall hear the grievance(s) and render a decision within two (2) working days of the hearing. No written reasons for the decision shall be provided beyond that which the Arbitrator deems appropriate to convey a decision.
- c) Expedited arbitration awards shall be of no precedential value and shall not thereafter be referred to by the parties in respect of any other matter.
- d) All settlements of expedited arbitration cases prior to hearing shall be without prejudice.

- f) Whenever possible, the Arbitrator will attempt to mediate a settlement between the parties.
- g) The parties shall equally share the cost of the fees and expenses of the Arbitrator and hearing rooms.
- h) The parties shall attempt to prepare an agreed to statement of facts for the presentation to the Arbitrator.
- i) It is understood that it is not the intention of either party to appeal a decision of an expedited arbitration proceeding.

- 11.3 All rights of employment, recall and seniority shall terminate:
- a) the effective date of resignation, when an employee resigns,

During the probationary period, the employee shall have no seniority or bidding rights, and retention as an employee of the Employer shall be within the sole discretion of the Employer. In order to successfully complete the probationary period, the employee must have remained in the same position for the entire period.
- If the employee completes the probationary period satisfactorily, and is retained, seniority shall commence retroactively to the date of employment.
- 11.6 The Employer agrees to prepare and distribute in the month of October of each year, or at such other time as may be mutually agreed upon, a list of the names of all employees, including those on an approved leave of absence, indicating their respective positions and seniority standing as of July 1 of that year. Employees shall have ten days from date of receipt of the list to indicate errors.
- Upon the establishment of errors, corrections shall immediately be made, and the Employer will, by December, supply the Union with a copy of the corrected seniority list.

- d) six weeks' written notice, where the period of employment is five years or more, but less than ten years;
- e) eight weeks' written notice, where the period of employment is ten years or more.

If notice is not provided as required, employees shall receive pay in lieu of notice.

11.8 In the event that the Employer determines that the layoff of employees is necessary, the Employer shall lay off employees in inverse order of their seniority in the classification.

Employees shall be deemed to be laid off for the school (summer) vacation periods. For permanent employees in on-going positions, recall following the school (summer) vacation periods shall be automatic unless the Board has served layoff notice in accordance with Article 11.7. This article shall serve as notice of lay-off and recall for the school (summer) vacation periods. Article 11.7 does not have application in these areas.

11.9 Where a permanent employee bids into a term position, and that position expires prior to the employee successfully bidding into another position, the employee shall be laid off subject to the recall period specified in subsection 11.3 c).

ARTICLE 12 PROMOTIONS AND VACANCIES

 - b) minimizing disruption to the school, and

- 12.5 Where the qualifications, skills, abilities and knowledge of Aboriginal culture as they relate to each specific position of two or more applicants are relatively equal, seniority shall be the deciding factor, except that preference will be given to candidates who are of Aboriginal ancestry or are members of a visible minority.
- 12.6 In evaluating the qualifications, skills, abilities and knowledge of Aboriginal culture, the Employer shall do so in a way that is non-arbitrary, non-discriminatory, and in good faith.
- 12.7 This process is subject to the grievance procedure. LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING #3

FIELD HOURS

The Employer and the Union believe that in order for Community School Coordinators to work closely with school staff and the communities to facilitate and deliver a wide array of supports to pupils, their families and their school communities, Community School Coordinators' hours of work shall, of necessity, be flexible. The educational and cultural needs of the pupils, families and the school communities will be best met if Community School Coordinators provide service on days and at times that have been previously agreed to by the Principal and the Community School Coordinator and are in accordance with the provisions of the collective agreement.

A Community School Coordinator shall, in consultation with the principal of the school, plan each four-week block of time, taking into account the educational and cultural needs of the pupils, families and the school community and recognizing the personal needs and family/community obligations of the Community School Coordinator.

With respect to the four-week time block that includes the days of work from Christmas Day to the first school day of the succeeding calendar year, the Employer and Union shall mutually agree to schedule an eight-week block of time of 271 and 1/3 hours to include the above. The provisions of Article 14.4 shall apply after 271 and 1/3 hours in the eight-week block.

If a block of time is shorter than four weeks for any reason (for example at the start of the school year or the end of the school year or at the beginning or end of an employee's appointment), the number of hours in the block shall be calculated by multiplying the number of working days by 7 1/3 hours.

Any provision for the carryover of hours from one block to another, in excess of 14 2/3 hours, may occur only with the mutual agreement of the parties.

This Letter of Understanding shall be in effect as of the first of the month following ratification and shall remain in effect up to and including August 31, 2017, and from year to year thereafter, subject to the negotiating process.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING #4

SESSION AWARDS

The Employer agrees to make session awards available to probationary or permanent Community School Coordinators for the 2016-2017 fiscal years based on the following guidelines:

1. Applications must be received prior to the commencement of the class for which the session award is requested. Acceptance of the applications will not be guaranteed.
2. For fall, winter and intersession, a session award for studies at the University of Regina shall be restricted to the cost of the tuition fee for one course to a maximum of $500. Tuition fees for two summer school classes may be awarded. No applicant may receive more than four session awards during any fiscal year. Exceptions to the limits may be made for employees on leave, depending on circumstances.
3. No more than 15 thesis credit hours will be granted per graduate degree.
4. Receipts and evidence of mark attained must be provided upon successful completion of course(s).
5. Awards will be considered for classes to be taken at another university, including on-line and correspondence courses. If a comparable course can be studied at the University of Regina, the session award shall equal the tuition fee at the University of Regina. If the equivalent class is not available at the University of Regina, the award shall be up to twice the current fee at the University of Regina to a maximum of $500 and will be prorated on a credit-hour basis.
6. Tuition fees may also be granted for certificate, audit and non-credit classes, including SIAST extension courses, provided that the total award during any session does not exceed that of a three credit-hour university course.
7. Second language immersion courses applicable to teaching situations but not offered by the University of Regina may be funded up to twice the current University of Regina tuition fee, to a maximum of $500. A session award will not be approved if funding from outside agencies exceeds $500.

8. Applicants must be on a continuing contract with the Board prior to commencement of the session.
9. Awards will be paid only for the class and session for which approval has been received.
