8.2 Policy Grievance

8.3 Union May Institute Grievances

The Union and its representatives shall have the right to originate a grievance on behalf of an employee, or groups of employees.

8.4 Stewards

The Union shall notify the employer's representative(s) in writing of the name of each steward.

8.6 Permission to Leave Work

- a) Any employee who feels that they have been aggrieved or any employee with relevant grievance information shall receive permission from their supervisor to leave work temporarily, for a reasonable period of time, without loss of pay, in order to discuss the complaint with the appropriate Union representative. If it is impossible to leave work immediately due to work requirements, other arrangements shall be made on work time, as soon as possible.
- b) No employee, steward, or elected Union Representative shall suffer loss of pay by reason of time spent with the Employer to discuss grievances or complaints. No overtime shall be accrued by the above for these discussions.

Procedure

Every effort shall be made to resolve problems through dialogue at the local level prior to filing a grievance.

- a) Attempts to resolve the dispute shall be done through a meeting with the Executive Director or designated out of scope personnel or their designate.
- b) Both parties shall be required to provide full disclosure of all relevant information regarding the dispute at each step of the Grievance Process.
- c) At any stage during the Grievance Process the time limits may be extended by mutual agreement between the parties.

8.8

Grievance Process

Step 1 – Filing a Grievance

Failing resolution of the dispute, the grievance shall be submitted in writing by the steward or SGEU Labour Relations Officer on behalf of the grievor to the Executive Director within thirty (30) calendar days of failure of resolution at the local level.

The Executive Director shall render a written decision to the steward and SGEU Labour Relations Officer with a copy to the grievor within fifteen (15) calendar days of receipt of the grievance.

Either party may request a meeting to discuss the matter at any time during Step 1.

Step 2 – Meeting

Upon receipt of the Step 1 letter, the SGEU Labour Relations Officer within thirty (30) calendar days may request a meeting with the Executive Director. The meeting shall be scheduled within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of the request. Upon mutual agreement of the parties, additional meetings may be required.

The meeting will include the grievor, steward if available, the SGEU Labour Relations Officer and the employer representative(s). Whenever possible the meeting will occur during work hours. There shall be no loss of pay or accrual of overtime for the grievor and the steward.

The meeting will:

- b) Either party may initiate a meeting for the purpose of resolving the grievance prior to or during the grievance, mediation or arbitration proceedings.

8.10 Deviation from Grievance Procedure

After a grievance has proceeded to Step 1 by the Union, neither the Employer's representatives nor the grievor shall enter into discussions or negotiations with respect to the grievance either directly or indirectly with the other party.

8.11 Failure to Act Within Time Limits

Should either party fail to adhere to the time limits, the onus is on that party to show a justifiable reason for its failure to adhere to the limits. The matter shall automatically be advanced to the next step if there is no justifiable reason established.

Settlements reached at mediation will not be considered a precedent or normal practice and will not be raised in support of any future grievance.

Anything said or done at mediation will not be used against the Employer, employee, or the Union at any subsequent arbitration.

At any subsequent arbitration hearing or any hearing on the matter by the Labour Relations Board, the mediator will not be a witness.

No transcripts or records will be kept by the mediator other than the mediation occurred, when, where, the parties to the dispute and whether settlement was achieved.

The parties will agree at mediation the extent to which the resolution will be kept confidential or shared.

Whenever possible, the Parties will have the authority to conclude a settlement at mediation. When it is not possible and outside approval is required it shall be disclosed at the outset of the mediation.

At the conclusion of the mediation, once a potential resolution is achieved, the parties will advise as to whether or not they are prepared to recommend and sign the recommendation.

The parties to the mediation will determine the process in consultation with the mediator.

decision according to equitable principles and the justice of the case, unless either party can demonstrate a clear prejudice of the irregularity or objection.

In the event that an employee is called as a witness in the arbitration hearing, the Employer shall grant leave and expenses which shall be applicable as follows:

i) If called by the Employer, leave without loss of pay and expenses paid by the Employer.

Harassment and discrimination are, fundamentally, a selective denial of the basic human right to be treated with dignity and respect. ECIP will not tolerate or condone harassment or discrimination, and will take all reasonably practicable steps to ensure employees, clients, and members of the ECIP community are not subjected to harassment and/or discrimination. A formal complaint under any other ECIP policy or collective agreement article may trigger the Harassment Policy. Nothing in this policy will prevent staff from seeking redress through the grievance or arbitration procedures of or any other recourse allowed by law.

This policy and the provisions of this Collective Agreement shall apply to risks, threats and incidents of discrimination and/or harassment that occur: on ECIP premises; during the course of any ECIP sponsored event; and, to conduct not on ECIP premises but has an identifiable and substantial link to ECIP, or that affects ECIP's working environment, including but not limited to conduct through social media and public websites.
