- (a) The Employer will endeavor to avoid contracting out work that can be done by employees in an effective, efficient manner within Melfort Housing policy framework and meeting the operational time constraints of the work.

- (c) Existing historical employment practices related to contracting work out will not be restricted by this provision.

- (a) verbal reprimand,
- (b) written reprimand,
- (c) suspension,
- (d) dismissal.

5.3 Constructive Counseling and Coaching

- (a) The Employer and the Union recognize the difference between discipline and the setting of reasonable objectives and expectations specific to job performance and constructive job coaching, and nothing is intended to restrict the Employer's right to counsel or set such reasonable expectations.
- (b) The Employer may, before initiating or imposing discipline, arrange to meet with the employee to discuss the employee's work performance in an effort to resolve the problem, except in the case where the employee has been suspended or dismissed. The employee shall have the right to have a union representative present.

5.4 Records of an Employee

- (a) Except in the case of a verbal reprimand the Employer will provide the Union and the employee with a written disciplinary record including reasons for such discipline or dismissal.
- (b) Employees shall have the right to review their personnel file immediately upon request. A Union representative, with the written authorization of the employee, shall have access to the file, in the presence of a Manager, Human Resource Officer, or authorized designate.

- (c) Two (2) years following discipline, the Employer shall remove the written documentation regarding the specific incident that led to discipline from the employee's personnel file, if no further problems were noted. Employee's performance evaluations including probationary reviews will not be removed from the personnel file.
- (d) An Employee may make written request to have disciplinary documents removed from their personnel file after one (1) year. The onus will be on the Employee to provide adequate reasons to have the document(s) removed.

5.5 Notice of Resignation

A permanent Employee shall be expected to file written notice with the Employer of her intention to resign from service at least two (2) calendar weeks prior to the date upon which she intends to leave. The Employer may waive that period of notice.

A probationary or temporary Employee shall be expected to file written notice with the Employer of her intention to resign from service at least seven (7) calendar days prior to the date upon which she intends to leave.

5.6 Notice of Dismissal or Demotion

Employees who are dismissed for misconduct will not receive notice or payment in lieu of notice, unless otherwise negotiated between the Parties in the settlement of a grievance.

Permanent Employees who are dismissed for non-punitive reasons such as innocent absenteeism, incompetence, or general unsuitability will be provided with thirty (30) calendar days' notice of dismissal or if the Employee does not work the thirty (30) day notice period, the Employee will receive thirty (30) days' pay, at the regular rate, in lieu of notice. At management's discretion, an employee may be required to vacate the job on the first day.

ARTICLE 6 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

6.1 The parties will make every effort to settle grievances as fairly and as promptly as possible without the involvement of a third party.

6.2 Definition of a Grievance

- (a) A grievance shall be defined as any difference or dispute, pertaining to this collective bargaining agreement, between the Employer and the Union on behalf of any employee(s), or any difference or dispute, pertaining to this Agreement, between the Employer and the Union.

- (b) The Employer shall receive a grievance only when it is submitted in writing by an authorized Union steward or by a paid Union Staff Representative.

6.3 Disclosure of All Information

The Parties to the grievance process shall provide full disclosure of all information available regarding the grievance at each step of the grievance procedure.

6.4 Union Grievance / Group Grievance

The Union may file a policy grievance where a dispute involves a question of general application or interpretation of this Agreement. Such grievance shall commence at Step 2 of Article 6.6. The Union shall have the right to file a grievance on its own behalf or on behalf of an Employee or group of Employees, and to seek adjustment with the Employer in the manner provided for in this Agreement.

6.5 Shop Stewards

- (a) Right to Representation – An employee shall have the right to have her Steward present at any discussion with supervisory personnel which the employee believes might be the basis of disciplinary action. Where a supervisor intends to interview an employee for disciplinary purposes, the supervisor shall so notify the employee in advance of the purpose of the interview in order that the employee may contact her Steward to be present at the interview.
- (b) Recognition – The Employer recognizes the Steward(s) as designated representatives, elected by the Union. The Union will notify the Employer, in writing, of the name of each Steward, on an annual basis.
- (c) Meeting with the Employee – Any Employee who feels he has been aggrieved may request permission from his supervisor to leave work temporarily, in order to discuss the complaint with a Shop Steward within the facility. Neither the Employee nor the Shop Steward shall suffer a loss of pay. Suitable arrangements for an appropriate time and place shall be made with the Manager or designate.
- (d) Meeting the Employer – The Employer agrees that one (1) Shop Steward and the grievor may attend a grievance meeting with the Employer without suffering a loss of pay. Any member of the paid staff of the Union may attend a grievance meeting.

6.6 Problem Resolution (Informal Process)

- (a) An Employee who believes that he/she has a justifiable request or complaint may discuss such matters with their supervisor in an effort to resolve the problem. The supervisor shall convene a meeting with the Employee within seven (7) days at a time mutually agreed upon. The Employee may request the attendance of the Shop Steward at the meeting.

- (b) Utilizing this process will not deny the Employee access of the grievance / arbitration procedure. If an Employee accesses this process, the time frame to launch a grievance will be extended to commence on the date the supervisor provides a decision.
- (c) The supervisor will provide the decision within seven (7) days of the meeting, and the decision will be presented to the Employee and the Shop Steward, if one (1) was in attendance.

6.7 Grievance Procedure (Formal Process)

- (a) Step 1 – Procedure for Employee Aggrieved

The aggrieved Employee shall take a grievance to the Shop Steward of his choice and the following sequence shall occur and will end at the Employee's request or when the grievance has been settled to the satisfaction of the Union.

Subject to Article 8.6 (d), the Shop Steward will submit the Employee's grievance in writing to the Employee's immediate Supervisor, or authorized designate, within thirty (30) calendar days of the occurrence of the matter leading to the grievance or the time that the Employee became aware of the occurrence.

The Supervisor, or authorized designate, will hear the grievance and submit his decision in writing to the grievor, the Shop Steward and the Union within ten (10) working days.

- (b) Step 2 – Manager

If a satisfactory settlement cannot be effected at Step 1, the Union may, within ten (10) working days of receiving the written response at Step 1, submit the grievance to the Manager, or authorized designate. A Step 2 meeting will be scheduled at a time agreed to by the Parties. The Manager will render a decision to the Union in writing within ten (10) working days of the meeting held to discuss the grievance at Step 2.

6.8 Alternate Dispute Resolution Process

- (a) Within thirty (30) days of receipt of the response at Step 2, the Parties will meet to determine one of the following dispute resolution mechanisms:
 - Mediation

- Expedited Arbitration
 - Single Arbitrator
 - Full Panel Arbitration
- (b) Should the Parties mutually agree to grievance mediation, the grievance will be mediated. In the event the grievance was not successfully resolved through grievance mediation, the Union will inform the Employer in writing within thirty (30) days, of the decision to advance the grievance to arbitration. Failure to meet the time limit will result in the grievance being withdrawn and no further action can be taken on the matter.
- (c) Should the Parties not agree to grievance mediation, the next consideration will be expedited arbitration. Notwithstanding the above, by mutual agreement, this expedited procedure may be used after Step 1 of the grievance procedure.

6.9 Expedited Arbitration

The Parties shall meet quarterly, or as often as required, to review outstanding grievances filed with the Employer to determine, by mutual agreement, those grievances suitable for this process, and shall set dates and locations for hearings of groups of grievances considered suitable for expedited arbitration.

- (a) All grievances shall be considered suitable for and resolved by expedited arbitration except grievances in the nature of:
- dismissals,
 - failure on probation,
 - suspensions in excess of 20 work days,
 - policy grievances,
 - grievances requiring substantial interpretation of a provision of the Collective Agreement,
 - grievances requiring presentation of extrinsic evidence,
 - grievances where a party intends to raise a preliminary objection,
 - demotions.

By mutual agreement, a grievance falling into any of these categories may be placed into the expedited arbitration process, but either Party may remove it from the expedited arbitration process at any time prior to hearing and forward it to a regular arbitration hearing.

The Parties agree to a list of arbitrators who shall hear and resolve groups of grievances;

Sheila Denysiuk

Brian Kenny

If the above arbitrators are not available, the parties shall mutually agree to another arbitrator who is available.

By mutual agreement, this expedited procedure may be used after Step 1 of the grievance procedure.

The arbitrator shall hear the grievances and shall render a decision within two (2) working days of such hearings. No written reasons for the decision shall be provided beyond that which the arbitrator deems appropriate to convey a decision.

Arbitration awards shall be of no precedent value and shall no thereafter be referred to by the Parties in respect of any other matter.

All settlements of expedited arbitration cases prior to hearing shall be without prejudice.

No legal counsel will be used by either party. The Union will use elected representatives or staff representatives. The Employer will use Employees of their Human Resources Unit.

Whenever possible, the arbitrator will attempt to mediate a settlement between the Parties.

The Parties shall equally share the cost of the fees and expenses of the arbitrator and hearing rooms.

The expedited arbitrator shall have the same powers and authority as a single arbitrator or arbitration board established under the provisions of Articles 6.9 and 6.10, excepting the above, that the decision shall be rendered within two (2) working days of the hearings.

It is understood that it is not the intention of either party to appeal a decision of an expedited arbitration hearing.

(b) Procedure Guidelines

The Opening Statement: This should basically set out the case from each party's perspective. The arbitrator will aggressively seek at this point to define the issue and to determine what evidence is agreed to and what is not.

The Parties, or their representatives, will try to get an agreed statement of facts for presentation to the arbitrator.

The Hearing: Sufficient witnesses should be called to ensure the “story” is properly told. Where it is an issue of credibility or conflicting evidence, the key individuals must testify.

The Arguments: As agreed, the parties will not cite legal precedents, but may refer to Brown & Beatty, Palmer, etc. However, it is imperative that the relevant provisions of the Collective Agreement be canvassed by the representatives to ensure that all relevant clauses are put before the arbitrator.

General rules of evidence will be waived except for the rule of “onus”.

Mediation: Representatives must accept some responsibility at this state to assist the arbitrator in assessing the evidence before him/her. Specifically, if the representatives can assist in assessing credibility and/or contradictory evidence, they should do so.

6.10 Single Arbitrator

(This is the preferred process and will be utilized whenever possible.)

Provided the Union has, within thirty (30) days of receiving the response at Step 2 or from the date of the discussion regarding alternate dispute resolution mechanisms (Article 6.8) by mutual agreement, the Parties may elect to have a single Arbitrator selected on a rotational basis from a list established by the Parties. The order in which they will act shall be determined by the order in which they have been listed. In the event that the person whose turn it is to act is not available, the member next following shall act.

- List:
- 1) Sheila Denysiuk
 - 2) Dan Ish
 - 3) Brian Kenny

Or any mutually agreed to arbitrator who is available.

(a) Procedure

The Arbitrator shall fix a time and place of sittings, after consultation with the Parties.

The Arbitrator shall determine the procedure, but shall give full opportunity to all Parties to present evidence and make representations. The Arbitrator shall, as much as possible, follow a layperson's procedure and shall avoid legalistic or formal procedure.

(b) Decision of the Arbitrator

The Arbitrator shall tender a final and binding decision within thirty (30) days of the end of the hearings.

The Arbitrator shall not have the power to change this Agreement or to alter, modify or amend any of its provisions. Subject to the foregoing, the Arbitrator shall have the power to dispose of the grievance by any arrangement that the Arbitrator deems just and equitable.

Should the Parties disagree as to the meaning of the Arbitrator's decision, either party may apply to the Arbitrator to clarify the decision.

(c) Expenses of the Arbitrator

The fees and expenses of the Arbitrator and any other common expenses shall be shared equally by both Parties.

6.11 Arbitration Board – Full Panel (This process will be utilized only in extreme circumstances and on the insistence of either party.)

If the addition of eight percent (8%) produces a rate between two (2) steps in the range of the higher paid position, the salary shall be adjusted to the higher of these two (2) rates.

When an Employee assumes a position with a higher rate of pay on other than the first (1st) working day of the month, the increment date shall be adjusted to the first (1st) of the month where the Employee commenced work in the new position between the first (1st) and fifteenth (15th) of the month, and to the first (1st) day of the following month where the Employee commenced work in the new position between the sixteenth (16th) and the last day of the month. RE: Job Share

1.1 Definition

Job sharing shall be defined as the voluntary sharing of a full-time position by two employees, one of whom is the permanent incumbent of the full-time position. Hours of work shall be applied as if the position were full-time. Notwithstanding that, the full-time work schedule may be adjusted to allow employees to meet to foster communication and appropriate organization of the work. Employees, subject to the approval of the Employer, may schedule the days of work in any given workweek in accordance with the Collective Agreement.

- 1.2 (a) Job sharing is intended to allow a full-time employee to work less than full-time hours while maintaining status as a permanent employee and protecting the full-time position.
- (b) It is also understood that job share employees will have the option to cover absences (i.e. vacation, sick leave, leaves of absence) of their job share partner. It is agreed, however, that all employees may be required to attend staff meetings.
- 1.3 (a) A job share arrangement shall only be initiated upon the request of a non-probationary full-time employee submitted through her immediate supervisor.
- (b) Any such request is subject to the approval of the Employer. It is understood that such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.
- 1.4 (a) Job share arrangements shall be reviewed during contract negotiations and shall be renewed upon mutual agreement of the parties.
- (b) Job share arrangements may be terminated during the term of a collective agreement upon mutual agreement of the parties
- (c) Should the incumbent resign, the position shall be posted as full-time.
- 1.5 The portion of the job share position not being worked by the permanent incumbent shall be filled in accordance with the Collective Agreement.

- 1.6 The job share partner shall earn benefits in accordance with the Collective Agreement provisions for part-time employees and, where appropriate, provisions regarding temporary employees.
- 1.7 (a) On termination of the job share arrangement, the permanent incumbent shall revert to the regular full-time hours of her position. The employee working the temporary portion of the job share shall revert to her former status or position.
- (b) In the event of lay-offs or displacement, the employee(s) shall be laid off and/or displaced from her permanent position(s). If the employee working the temporary vacancy of the job share is affected, she shall revert to her former status or position.
- (c) The job share should be for specified term of not less than three (3) months, and is not eligible for EDO's.
- 1.8 The parties agree to review the above with a thirty (30) day notice provided by either party.

The parties hereto have affixed their signatures this ____day of _____, A.D. 2021.
