

Multicultural Council of Saskatchewan

During the week November 18-26 the multicultural council of saskatchewan honour awards to multicultural superheroes. The Human Rights/Equity committee is in partnership with the multicultural council of saskatchewan in sponsoring the youth award. This award is given to a youth yearly during muticutersl week who has shown leadership and multiculturalism across the province. The youth chair on the Human rights/equity committee was given the opportunity to present the award to the recipient Bwe Doh Soe. Bwe Doh Soe moved to Saskatoon in 2007 as a Karen Refugee. He is active in continuing his own cultural practises and supporting others in the Karen community. He has acted as a leader for reconciliation and started connecting experiences with indigenous people in Canada and syrian refugees. SGEU donated Bew Doh Soe with a reward of $500.
