ARTICLE 2 SCOPE

2.1 Exclusions

The terms of this Agreement shall apply to all employees of the Employer, excluding the following:

- a) Manager
- b) Any other out of scope management staff as may be necessary to the operation, subject to the rules and governance of the Saskatchewan Labour Relations Board.

ARTICLE 3 MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

The Union recognizes the right of the Employer to manage its agency, and to direct the working force, including the right to hire, promote and/or transfer any employee or discharge any employee for just cause.

ARTICLE 4 UNION SECURITY

4.1 Recognition

The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole collective bargaining agent for the employees covered by this Agreement.

No employee or group of employees shall undertake to represent the Union at labour relations meetings with the Employer's representative without the proper authorization of the Union. The Union will supply the Employer's representative with names of its officers. The employer's representative shall supply the Union with a list of personnel with whom the Union may be required to transact business.

4.2 Union Membership

Every employee who is now or hereafter becomes a member of the Union shall maintain membership in the Union as a condition of employment, notwithstanding Article #3, and every new employee whose employment commences hereafter shall, within thirty (30) days after the commencement of employment apply for and maintain membership in the Union as a condition of employment provided that any employee in the appropriate bargaining unit who is not required to maintain membership in the Union shall as a condition of employment, tender to the Union the periodic dues uniformly required to be paid by the member of the Union.

4.3 Union Dues

- a) The employer shall deduct, on behalf of the Union, from the employee's pay all initiation fees, dues, assessments and levies. The employer shall remit such deductions to the union at the conclusion of each pay period.
- b) The employer shall provide with the dues submission a list of names, classifications and addresses of those who incurred the deductions.
- c) The employer shall inform the Union of any new hires, resignations, or retirements which occurred during each pay period. The notification shall state the date in which the change occurred.
- d) The employer shall provide the information electronically to the Union.
- e) The Union may provide the electronic template to the employer.

4.4 No Discrimination

The Employer and the Union agree that there shall be no discrimination by reason of age, colour, race, creed, national ancestry, physical ability, physical size, sex, political activity, religious affiliation, marital status or sexual orientation nor by reason of membership or activity in the Union, place of origin, place of residence, family relationship.

4.5 Bulletin Boards

The Employer shall make available to the Union a bulletin board in the workplace so that the employees have access to it, upon which the Union shall have the right to post notices and information which may be of interest to the employees.

4.6 Employer Policies

The Employer will maintain a policy manual available to employees and Union which comprises all the Employer's policies which relate to the working conditions, staff, or matters covered by this Agreement. The employer will inform all employees and Union in writing of new policies.

4.7 Copies of Motions

Copies of adopted resolutions and approved Board minutes which relate to the working conditions, staff or matters covered by this agreement will be forwarded to the Union.

4.8 New Employees

The Employer agrees to acquaint new employees with the fact that a Collective Agreement is in effect, and with the conditions of employment including those set out in this Article dealing with Union Security.

A representative of the Local Union shall be given a total of 30 minutes during working hours to acquaint him with the benefits and duties of Union membership.

All new employees shall be included in the Union until negotiated otherwise.

4.9 Work of the Bargaining Unit

Except in cases mutually agreed upon, persons whose jobs (paid or unpaid) are not in the bargaining unit shall not work on any jobs which are included in the bargaining unit except out of scope staff in the event that an absent unionized staff person cannot be replaced by a qualified unionized employee.

4.10 Refusal to Cross Picket Lines

No employee shall be required to cross a legal picket line. The Employer will not request or require employees to perform work that would normally have been carried out by workers involved in a strike.

4.11 Employees Temporarily Performing Out-of-Scope Duties

An employee covered by this Agreement who is temporarily filling an out-of-scope position shall continue to have Union dues deducted from his salary and shall be entitled to all the benefits and protections afforded by this Agreement

4.12 No Contracting Out

The employer agrees that all work or services performed by the employer shall not be sub-contracted, transferred, leased, assigned or conveyed, in whole or in part, to any other person, company, or non-union employees, except where mutually agreed by the parties. Where mutual agreement cannot be reached then the Union will have the ability to propose options to allow the work to be performed by unionized employees.

4.13 Access to Employer's Premises

Subject to the approval of the Manager or designate, the Employer may allow the Union to conduct educational and business functions for employees on the Employer's premises during off hours. Such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

4.14 Leave for Union Position

An employee who is elected or selected for a full-time position with the Union, Saskatchewan Federation of Labour or Canadian Labour Congress, shall be granted leave of absence without loss of seniority for a period of one year. Such leave shall be renewed each year, upon request, during his term of office. Such employee shall continue to receive his salary and benefits from the Employer, conditional on reimbursement of such salary and full benefit costs by the Union to the Employer.

Union Access

The Bargaining Unit shall have the right at any time to have the assistance of representatives of the Saskatchewan Government & General Employees' Union when dealing or negotiating with the Employer. A representative shall have access to the employees, during working hours, in order to investigate and assist in settling any grievances. The Union representative will provide adequate notice where possible to ensure clients' needs are not interrupted.

4.16

Paid Leave for Collective Bargaining

Time spend by up to three Union Bargaining committee members in direct negotiations with the employer will be considered as time worked subject to reimbursement by the Union.

4.17

Names of Stewards

The Local Union will notify the manager in writing of the names of each steward and of the members of the bargaining committee.

4.18

Leave for Union Business

The Employer recognises the right of every employee to participate in the affairs of the Union, providing that operational requirements of the workplace shall be met.

The Employer agrees that employees shall receive leave of absence with pay and without loss of benefits for all time required to participate in the Union and its affiliated union central. The Union agrees to reimburse the Employer for all wages and benefits paid by the Employer.

Printing of Agreement

The Union agrees to print the Collective Agreement and will provide the Employer with six (6) copies.

4.20

Legal Costs

The employer shall pay all costs arising out of law suits or charges in any court against an employee as a result of the performance of the regular or assigned duties for the employer, provided that the employee has displayed non-culpable behaviour.

ARTICLE 5 SENIORITY AND PROBATION

5.1 Definition

All employees covered by this agreement shall earn seniority from the date they are hired.

5.2 Upon initial employment, all full time employees shall serve a probationary period for the period of six months.

- a) All other employees shall serve the probationary period of three hundred (300) hours or six months whichever comes first. If an employee promotes during the probation period, the employee shall serve a probation period and a trial period simultaneously.
- b) The Employer may implement, an extension no later than two weeks prior to the expiration of the probationary period, and shall provide written reasons for the extension to the employee and Union. The length of extension shall not exceed three months.

5.3 Assessment While on Probation

Performance requirements established by the Employer will be communicated to the employee, verbally and in writing, at the outset and discussed midway and at the end of the employee's probationary period. Performance requirements will be established based on the classification specification and the job description and will include the responsibilities, knowledge, skills and abilities appropriate to the job.

Performance assessments will be discussed with the employee and shall be signed by the employee to indicate awareness of the assessment. Employees will be given a copy of any performance assessments.

5.4 Trial Period for Promotion

A permanent employee who has been promoted shall serve a trial period for a period of three months. During the trial period if the employee chooses to revert, or does not successfully complete the trial period, she shall revert to her former position, or by mutual agreement, the employee may revert to a similar position, subject to any increments he/she would have earned had the promotion not taken place; or by mutual agreement the employee may revert to a similar position subject to qualifications, at the same step in the salary range, subject to any increments she would have earned had the promotion not taken place. If no former position is available the employee shall have the right to utilize Article 8.

- a) A permanent employee displaced through the above article shall also have the right to revert to her former position at her former step in the salary range, subject to any increments she would have received had she remained in that position. If no former position is available she shall have the right to utilize Article 8.

5.5 On Transfer

An employee who transfers during initial probation shall complete the balance of her probationary period in the new position.

A permanent employee who voluntarily transfers may be required to serve a trial period as per 5.4. Should the employee be unsuccessful in completing this probationary period, she shall revert to her previous position, subject to qualifications or by mutual agreement, a position equivalent to the previous position or if neither of the former is available to utilize Article 8.

- a) No employee shall be involuntarily transferred.

5.6 Leave During Probation

When an approved leave of absence has been taken during probation, the employee will be required to serve the additional time upon return.

5.7 Completion of Probation

Upon successful completion of a probationary period, the employee shall be appointed to permanent status, and the employee will be so informed in writing.

When the employer does not terminate or fail the employee or extend probationary period before the end of her probationary period, she will be deemed to have become a permanent employee in that position and classification.

5.8 Termination While On Probation

Should the Employer decide to terminate the employee, the employee will be given the reasons, in writing, prior to termination. The employee will be given an opportunity to respond.

5.9

Seniority Lists

- a) The Employer shall maintain a seniority list of all employees showing the date hired. Such list shall be sent to the Local Union by October 31st and remain posted on the bulletin board for the balance of the year.
- b) The list will be open to challenge for a period of 30 calendar days from the date of posting and on presentation by the employee or Union of proof of error, the roster shall be corrected within 10 working days and an amended roster shall be posted.

5.10

Loss of Seniority

An employee shall lose all entitled seniority and shall be deemed to have terminated employment when:

- a) an employee is dismissed by the Employer for just cause and not reinstated.
- b) an employee voluntarily resigns or leaves the service of the Employer.
- c) an employee fails to return to work after termination of a leave of absence, unless the employee can show a justifiable reason for failure to report to work.
- d) An employee has been continually laid-off due to lack of work for a period of eighteen (18) months.
- e) An employee has not worked for the employer for twelve (12) months.
- f) An employee is absent without authorization for a period of more than three (3) consecutive days.
- g) An employee resigns in writing and does not withdraw that resignation within five (5) calendar days of its submission.

ARTICLE 6

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

6.1

Definition of Grievance

A grievance shall be defined as any unresolved difference or dispute between the Employer and any employee(s) or the Union pertaining to any of the following:

- a) Any matter relating to the terms of employment, conditions or employment, rates of pay, hours of work, or working conditions of any employee or employees under the provisions of this Agreement.

- b) Any matter involving the interpretation, application, or alleged violation of any provisions of this Agreement.

6.2

Stewards

- a) The duties of a steward, when requested by the member(s) of the bargaining unit, shall be to represent the member(s) during all stages of the dispute, including investigation, preparation and presentation of the grievance in accordance with the Grievance Procedure.
- b) Stewards may investigate disputes and grievances on work time provided they make appropriate arrangements with the Executive Director or designate. Their absence shall not unreasonably interfere with the operation of the Employer. Approvals shall not be unreasonably withheld.

Names of Stewards

The Union shall notify the Executive Director or designate in writing of the name of each steward.

6.4

Permission to Leave Work

- a) Any employee who feels that she has been aggrieved or any employee with relevant grievance information shall receive permission from the Executive Director or designate to leave work temporarily without loss of pay, in order to discuss the complaint with the appropriate Union representative. If it is impossible to leave work immediately due to work requirements other arrangements shall be made on work time, as soon as possible.
- b) A steward or elected officer of the Union shall receive permission to leave assigned duties temporarily in order to discuss those matters covered by the grievance procedure. The matter shall be dealt with as promptly as possible while on work time.
- c) No employee, steward, or elected Union Representative shall suffer loss of pay by reason of time spent with the Employer to discuss grievance or complaints.

Guidelines

- a) Every effort shall be made to resolve problems through dialogue at the local level prior to filing a grievance. Attempts to resolve the dispute shall be done through a meeting with the Executive Director.
- b) Both parties shall be required to provide full disclosure at each step of the procedure of all information available regarding the dispute.
- c) At any stage during the Grievance Process the time limits may be extended by mutual agreement between the parties.

6.6

Procedures

a) Step 1 – Filing a Grievance

Failing resolution of the dispute, the grievance shall be submitted in writing by the steward or SGEU Agreement Administration Advisor on behalf of the aggrieved to the Executive Director within thirty (30) calendar days of failure of resolution at the local level.

b) Step 2 – Meeting

Upon receipt of the Step 1 letter, the SGEU Agreement Administration Advisor within thirty (30) calendar days may request a meeting with the Executive Director. The meeting shall be scheduled within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of the request. Upon mutual agreement of the parties, additional meetings may be required.

The meeting will include the grievor, steward if available, the SGEU Agreement Administration Advisor and the employer representative(s). Whenever possible the meeting will occur during work hours. There shall be no loss of pay for the grievor and the steward.

The meeting will:

- i) attempt to ascertain the facts and negotiate a resolution
- ii) if possible, agree to a joint statement of facts

- iii) based on the meeting the SGEU Agreement Administration Advisor and the Executive Director may agree in writing to mediate the dispute

If settlement is not reached at the Step 2 meeting, the Executive Director shall render the decisions in writing within fifteen (15) calendar days of the meeting.

c) Step 3 – Mediation

If settlement is not reached at Step 2, the SGEU Agreement Administration Advisor within thirty (30) calendar days may apply for Mediation.

d) Step 4 – Arbitration

If settlement is not reached at Mediation the SGEU Agreement Administration Advisor within thirty (30) calendar days may apply for Arbitration.

6.7 Special Measures

Nothing in this Article precludes the parties from modifying the grievance procedure if another administrative step is required and agreed upon between the Employer and the Union.

Either party may initiate a meeting for the purpose of resolving the grievance prior to or during the grievance, mediation or arbitration proceedings.

6.8 Deviation from Grievance Procedure

After a grievance has proceeded to Step 1 by the Union, the Employer's representatives shall not enter into discussions or negotiations with respect to the grievance, either directly or indirectly with the aggrieved employee.

6.9 Failure to Act Within Time Limits

Should either party fail to adhere to the time limits, the onus is on that party to show a justifiable reason for its failure to adhere to the limits.

6.10 Technical Objections to Grievances

It is not the intention of the employer or the Union to evade the settlement of grievances on a procedural technicality; however, it is clearly understood that the time limits established herein are for the sake of procedural orderliness and are to be adhered to.

6.11 Changes to the Agreement

Any mutually agreed changes to the Collective Agreement shall form part of this Collective Agreement and are subject to the Grievance Procedure.

6.12 Access to Grievance Information from Employer

The employer shall provide to the Union or Steward relevant payroll information when requested in writing and accompanied by signed authorization of the employee concerned.

ARTICLE 7 MEDIATION-ARBITRATION

7.1 Mediation

The best resolution to disagreements or disputes is a solution worked out between the parties.

The parties by mutual agreement may engage mediation services to resolve a grievance. The mediator will be agreed to by the Employer and the Union, and the costs associated with the mediation process will be equally shared between the parties.

a) Selection of a Mediator

The parties will reach agreement on a mutually acceptable mediator as needed. If agreement cannot be obtained between the parties then either party can apply to the Minister of Labour to have a mediator appointed.

b) Role of the Mediator

The role of the mediator is to assist the parties to achieve a mutually acceptable resolution of the grievance.

c) Rules Applicable to Grievance Mediation

Any document provided prior to or during the mediation will be returned to the issuing party at the conclusion of the mediation process.

Settlements reached at mediation will not be considered a precedent or normal practice and will not be raised in support of any future grievance.

Anything said or done at mediation will not be used against the Employer, employee, or the Union at any subsequent arbitration.

At any subsequent arbitration hearing or any hearing on the matter by the Labour Relations Board, the mediator will not be a witness.

No transcripts or records will be kept by the mediator other than the mediation occurred, when, where, the parties to the dispute and whether settlement was achieved.

Parties to the mediation will have the authority to conclude a settlement at mediation.

d) Grievance Mediation Process

The mediator will provide an introduction of the mediation process.

The process will be determined by the parties to the mediation with respect to the collective agreement, opportunities to comment, and meeting as a group or individually with the mediator.

If a settlement can be reached, the terms of the settlement will be put in writing, and signed by the parties.

If no agreement is possible, the mediator will verbally set out respective positions, and points of difference.

The mediator may shut down the mediation process if it appears resolution is unlikely.

7.2

Arbitration

a) Selection of an Arbitrator

The parties will reach agreement on a mutually acceptable arbitrator as needed. If agreement cannot be obtained between the parties then either party can apply to the Minister of Labour to have an arbitrator appointed.

b) Procedure

The arbitrator shall fix a time and place of sittings, after consultation with the parties.

The arbitrator shall determine the procedure, but shall give full opportunity to all parties to present evidence and make representations. The arbitrator shall, as much as possible, follow a layperson's procedure and shall avoid legalistic or formal procedure.

No grievance shall be defeated by any formal or technical objection and the arbitrator shall have the power to allow all pertinent information to the grievance and the power to waive formal procedural irregularities in the processing of a grievance, in order to determine the real matter in dispute and to render a decision according to equitable principles and the justice of the case.

In the event that an employee is called as a witness in the arbitration hearing, the Employer shall grant leave and expenses which shall be applicable as follows:

- i) If called by the Employer, leave without loss of pay and expenses paid by the Employer.
- ii) If called by the Union, leave in accordance with Article 4.17 and expenses paid by the Union.
- iii) If called by the arbitrator, the parties shall share equally the costs.

c) Decision of the Arbitrator

The arbitrator shall render a decision within thirty (30) days of the end of the hearings.

The decision shall be final, binding and enforceable on all parties.

The arbitrator shall not have the power to change this Agreement, or to alter, modify or amend any of its provisions. Subject to the foregoing, the arbitrator shall have the power to dispose of the grievance by any arrangement which the arbitrator deems just and equitable.

Should the parties disagree as to the meaning of the arbitrator's decision, either party may apply to the arbitrator to clarify the decision.

d) Expenses of the Arbitrator

The fees and expenses of the arbitrator and any other common expenses shall be shared equally by both parties.

ARTICLE 8 LAY-OFFS AND RECALLS

8.1 Role of Seniority in Lay-Offs

Both parties recognize that job security shall increase in proportion to length of service. Therefore, in the event of lay-off, employees shall be laid off in reverse order of their bargaining-wide seniority. An employee about to be laid-off may bump any employee with less seniority providing the employee exercising the right is qualified to perform the work of the less senior employee.

8.2 Recall Procedure

- a) Employees shall be recalled in the order of their seniority for their former position or any position for which they are qualified
- b) Employees who have been laid off shall have the right to refuse work that would constitute a demotion or temporary employment without loss of seniority.
- c) Employees who choose to take employment offered to them which would constitute demotion or temporary employment shall not lose their right to re-employment to positions equivalent to those from which they were laid off.
- d) An employee being recalled from lay-off shall be notified twenty-one (21) days in advance by registered mail, sent to his last known address.
- e) It shall be the responsibility of the laid-off employee to keep the Employer advised of his current address

8.3 No New Employees

No new employees shall be hired until those laid off have been given an opportunity of recall, subject to qualifications.

8.4 Advance Notice of Lay-Off

As per current Saskatchewan Labour Standards provisions

8.5 Notice of Resignation

Employees shall give two (2) weeks written notice of resignation.

8.6 Options on Job Abolition

An employee who has been notified of job abolition shall have the following options:

- a) to bump in accordance with Article 8.7
- b) to have his name placed on the re-employment list in accordance with Article 8.8
- c) to resign and collect severance pay in accordance with Article 8.10

An employee will notify the Employer in writing of the option he selected within seven calendar days of receiving notice of job abolition.

8.7 Bumping

An employee may use his seniority to bump the least senior employee in his classification. If there is no such junior employee, he may bump downward, if qualified, or bump laterally at his option. If the employee declines to accept a position offered through bumping, or if there is no position to bump into, the employee may select another option as per Article 8.6.

A trial period of three (3) months will be required for a permanent employee. In the event of any failure in the trial period the employee shall revert to the former position if available or access provisions outlined in Article 8.

8.8 Re-employment List

An employee who has elected to have his name placed on the re-employment list shall retain his seniority while on the list, and shall be entitled to apply for any position posted in accordance with Article 9.

If an employee is not re-employed within 18 months of being placed on the list, his name shall be removed from the list and he shall receive the severance pay he would have received had he selected option (c) in Article 8.6 and in accordance with Article 8.10 (Severance Pay).

a) Filling Vacancies from the Re-employment List

A trial period may be served by an employee.

An employee who fails trial period shall be returned to the re-employment list for the balance of her time on the list.

8.9 Out of Scope

An employee shall have the right to return to their former position within one year of being appointed to an out of scope position and shall have all seniority restored.

8.10 Severance Pay

An employee whose job has been abolished or receives a lay-off notice or elects to resign under 8.6 (c) shall be entitled to severance pay on the basis of one week's pay for each year of service. Service for the purpose of this Article shall be calculated in accordance with Article 5.1, but shall also include service pro-rated for partial years, and shall include service in both in-scope and out-of-scope positions, but shall not include time spent on the re-employment list.

ARTICLE 9 JOB POSTING

9.1 Maximization of Part time positions

As positions become vacant they shall be posted according to Article 9.5. Alternatively, at the request of the Manager they shall be reviewed by the Manager and the Union. With mutual agreement, non-related job functions may be separated and posted so that senior qualified part time employees may maximize their hours of work if they so choose, as long as the schedule of the posted job does not conflict with their existing position and total hours do not exceed full time hours.

In instances where schedules conflict, schedules may be adjusted with mutual agreement where appropriate, as long as they meet the needs of the operation. Such redistribution of hours shall not result in loss of net hours to the bargaining unit.

9.2 Appointment of Senior Qualified Applicant

All permanent full time, part-time or temporary positions shall be filled only in accordance with this Article. Any employee may apply for any vacancy, and if qualified shall be appointed to that vacancy. If there is more than one qualified employee in a competition, the most senior qualified employee shall be appointed.

9.3 Union Notified of Successful Applicant

The Employer agrees to notify the Local Union representative of the successful applicant(s) of any job posting.

9.4 Right of Reversion

An employee shall have the ability to return to their former position within one year of being appointed to an out of scope position and shall have all seniority restored. She shall receive her former rate of pay, subject to any increments she would have earned had she remained in her former position

9.5 Position Designations

All positions within the scope of this Agreement shall be designated as either:

- a) permanent full-time
- b) permanent part-time
- c) temporary
- d) casual
- e) project position

9.6 Vacancies Shall be Posted

Vacancies shall be posted in house for at least 10 calendar days unless the Employer and the Local Union agree to a longer or shorter period.

The employer and or Local Union shall inform employees of such posting where employees are on re-employment lists, are temporarily absent from work, are on vacation, sick leave, work out of house or are on leave of absence, etc. during the 10-day period. All vacancies shall be posted within thirty (30) days of becoming vacant.

9.7 Information on Posting

Job postings shall set out the following information:

- a) name of position
- b) position designation as per Article 9.5
- c) a brief description of position duties
- d) qualifications required
- e) salary
- f) location
- g) hours of work designation as per Article 10
- h) deadline for submission of applications

ARTICLE 10 HOURS OF WORK AND OVERTIME

10.1 Hours of Work

- a) Employees who work or are scheduled a minimum of 37 hours per week on a regular basis, subject to program requirements, shall be considered as full time employees for all purposes under the collective agreement.
- b) To meet the requirements of both the employees' and the Employer's needs, flexible hours may be requested by either party subject to mutual agreement. The parties will provide 48 hours' notice.
- c) Should the Employer see a need to reduce the hours of work in any program, they shall consult with the Union prior to implementing the change.

10.2 Rest Breaks

The employees will be provided a 15 minute paid coffee break for every four hours worked.

Employees working at least 5.5 hours shall be provided with a one-half (1/2) hour unpaid meal break. In the event the employee(s) is required to work during her meal period, such time will be re-scheduled within the shift, or banked at the applicable overtime rate if such time cannot be re-scheduled.

10.3 Less Than Full-time Hours of Work

- a) Part-time and Casual employees shall work such hours as are assigned by Management within the provision Articles 10.1 and 10.2 above.
- b) Available hours of work shall be assigned to qualified employees on a rotation basis, first within the program area, then across all programs to maximize hours to those of full-time employees. The initial rotation shall be established based upon seniority.
- c) If no part-time or casual employee is able to work the available hours, or all part-time and casual employees have reached full-time hours, the hours shall then be considered as overtime and be assigned to any available employee based upon senior qualified provision.

10.4 Overtime Defined

Overtime shall be defined as all authorized time worked in excess of the regular full time daily hours, days of rest, scheduled days off and designated holidays. Prior approval must be obtained from the Manager before any overtime is worked.

10.5 Overtime at Time and One-Half

Approved overtime work shall be compensated at the rate of time and one half (1 ½) of the regular rate of pay.

Upon the employee's request, the Employer may grant time off in lieu at the appropriate rate.

10.6 Reporting for Work

Any other than full time employee reporting for work or called in for work shall be paid a minimum of three hours at regular rate of pay.

10.7 Minimum Call-Back

Any other than a full time employee called back or called in to work for overtime shall be guaranteed a minimum of 3 hours pay at one and one half (1 ½) times the regular rate of pay.

10.8 Overtime Voluntary

Employees will not be required to work overtime.

10.9 Banked Hours

- a) Full time employees working approved scheduled overtime will be allowed to bank hours at 1.5 times, in lieu of receiving overtime pay.
- b) Employees that voluntarily work additional hours at SMILE Services Inc. fundraising events, e.g. Bingo, Parade, will be given time for time. These hours will be banked at straight time.
- c) The employees will not be allowed to accumulate banked hours in excess of thirty-two (32) hours.
- d) Banked hours can be used by employees at any time with written request and approval by the Manager.
- e) Banked hours must be used before the end of the fiscal year and may not be carried over into the next fiscal year except in special circumstances with approval of the Manager.

Drivers

The Employer shall post a schedule for all assigned hours of work for all Drivers, including the weekend Drivers, at least one month in advance. The schedule shall assign all hours known to be available at the time of preparation. As additional hours become available, if there is a requirement to provide coverage, they shall be assigned in accordance with Article 10.4.

ARTICLE 11 LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Leave of Absence

An employee may be entitled to a leave of absence without pay for a maximum of 12 months without loss of seniority and accumulated benefits when she requests such leave for good and sufficient reason. Such requests shall not be withheld unreasonably.

At the expiration of the leave, the employee shall return to work, and shall be reinstated to her former position. The employee may apply for a renewal of the leave, up to a maximum of one additional year, which may be approved at the employer's discretion.

When an employee elects to return to work before the expiration of leave approved under this Article, at least 21 calendar days' notice in writing shall be provided to the Employer. Upon return, the employee shall be placed in his or her former position, or an equivalent position.

Continuation of Benefits

While on leave in accordance with this Article, an employee shall retain full employment status under this collective agreement and the employee shall continue to maintain seniority during the period in which he or she would normally have been employed.

Subject to the qualifying provisions of the Benefits Plans, an employee on leave under this Article may elect to maintain pension and insurance benefits for the period in which he or she would normally have been employed, by paying his or her share of the premium. In advance upon payment by the employee of contributions, the employer will contribute as per the plan requirements.

11.3 Failure to Return

Should an employee not return to work at the end of the period of any leave approved under Articles 12, 13, 14 or 15, he or she shall be deemed to have terminated employment unless satisfactory reason is demonstrated.

11.4 Court Duty

Time spent on a scheduled working day by an employee serving as a juror or witness shall be considered as time worked at the appropriate rate of pay. All payments received by the employee from the Court shall be submitted to the employer. Any personal expenses will be reimbursed back to the employee. Notwithstanding, this article will not apply to any employee's personal legal proceedings.

ARTICLE 12 ANNUAL VACATION

12.1 Definition

Annual Vacation means annual vacation with pay.

12.2 Annual Vacation Year

The vacation year shall be the 12 month period commencing on the 1st of April each year. At the discretion of the Employer vacation may be granted prior to completion of one year of employment.

Request for vacation shall be submitted in writing to the Manager.

- a) Vacation request will be submitted from January 1st to March 1st. Leave will be granted based on Seniority. Requests after April 1st will be granted on a first come, first served basis at the discretion of the manager who will respond within a two week period.
- b) The Manager may at his discretion approve leaves with less notice if operations permit.
- c) No employee shall be required to work during scheduled vacation. However, should an employee agree to work, the vacation period so displaced shall, at the employee's option, either be added to the vacation period or reinstated for use at a later date at a time mutually agreed upon.

An employee shall be entitled to receive vacation in an unbroken period unless otherwise mutually agreed upon between the employee and the Manager.

12.3

- a) An annual vacation of three (3) weeks after the first and including the tenth (10th) year of employment (3/52 of hours worked in a year).
- b) An annual vacation of four (4) weeks during and after the eleventh (11th) year of employment (4/52 of hours worked in a year).
- c) An annual vacation of four (4) weeks, eight (8) hours during the twentieth (20) year of employment (5/52 of hours worked in a year).
- d) An annual vacation of four (4) weeks, sixteen (16) hours during the twenty-first (21) year of employment (5/52 of hours worked in a year).
- e) An annual vacation of four (4) weeks, twenty-four (24) hours during the twenty-second (22) year of employment (5/52 of hours worked in a year).
- f) An annual vacation of four (4) weeks, thirty-two (32) hours during the twenty-third (23) year of employment (5/52 of hours worked in a year).
- g) An annual vacation of four (4) weeks, forty (40) hours during the twenty-fourth (24) year of employment (5/52 of hours worked in a year)

12.4

Carry-over of Annual Vacation

An employee shall be permitted to carry over up to one week (5 days) of unused vacation from one year to the next. A written request will be submitted by the employee between January 1st and March 1st as per Article 12.2 a). In special circumstances, or certified illness, the Manager may approve the carry-over of additional vacation. This additional vacation must be taken during the year in which it was approved to be used.

12.5

Annual Vacation Pay on Termination

An employee leaving the service of the Employer at any time in the vacation year before the employee has taken vacation shall be entitled to a proportionate payment of salary in lieu of such earned vacation. The pay rate used will be the employee's rate of pay in effect on her termination date.

12.6 Cancelling of Approved Vacation Leave

Where the employer cancels an employee's approved vacation leave and such cancellation causes the employee and/or her family member(s) to lose or forfeit travel deposits or fares, the employer will reimburse the employee to the extent of such loss.

12.7 Sickness During Vacation

When an employee qualifies and is approved for sick leave, bereavement, or any other approved leave during the employee's vacation, there shall be no deduction from vacation credits for such absence. The period of vacation so displaced shall, by mutual agreement between the employer and the employee, be either added to the vacation period or reinstated for use at a later date. Substantiation of all claims for deferred vacation must be provided, if requested.

12.8 Designated Holiday during Vacation Leave

When any holiday designated in Article 16 falls during an employee's annual vacation, she shall be granted appropriate additional vacation.

12.9 Vacation Pay for Less than Full Time

Vacation pay shall be pro-rated for all employees working less than full time.

12.10 Vacation Pay on Overtime Earnings

An employee shall receive together with her payment for overtime earnings, vacation pay at the rate specified in Article 12.3.

ARTICLE 13 SICK LEAVE

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING #2

RE: TRANSPORTATION SERVICES WEEKEND HOURS OF WORK

Effective the date of signing of this Collective Agreement, the weekend hours of operation of the Transportation Services shall be as deemed appropriate by the Employer.

Drivers shall be available for all pre-booked runs between 5:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. on Friday. If required for a run, they shall be paid a minimum of three (3) hours.

Drivers shall also be available for all pre-booked runs between 8:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. Saturday and Sunday and all in-coming bookings during scheduled hours of operations. Drivers shall be guaranteed twelve (12) hours pay for each assigned Saturday and Sunday block. All hours worked beyond the guarantee shall be paid at straight time.

The Employer agrees to maintain a minimum of two (2) permanent part-time Driver positions as well as a number of casuals. Drivers shall be assigned weekend work on a rotational basis. Additional hours/shifts shall be assigned on rotation. The initial rotation shall be determined on the basis of seniority.

Should a full-time Driver not be available for their scheduled hours, and it is required to fill the hours, weekend Drivers shall be offered those available hours, up to the weekly full-time hours in accordance with Article 10.4.

This Letter of Understanding shall remain in effect for the term of this Collective Agreement, however at any time after six (6) months following the effective date, either party may give to the other ninety (90) days written notice of their intent to reopen discussions on this Letter.
