The employer agrees to negotiate with the Union or its designated bargaining representatives concerning all matters affecting the relationship between the employees and the employer or any differences that may arise between them.

No employee or group of employees shall undertake to represent the Union at meetings with the employer's representative without the proper authorization of the Union. The Union will supply the employer's representative with the name of its officers. The employer's representative shall supply the Union with a list of personnel with whom the Union may be required to transact business.

3.1.1 Union's Recognition of the Employer

a) Persons whose jobs are not in the bargaining unit shall not work on any jobs which are included in the bargaining unit except in the cases mutually agreed upon by the parties. Out of scope staff may be used to perform the work of the bargaining unit up to four (4) weeks, not to displace a member of the bargaining unit but to meet work demands during the short-term absence of a member of the bargaining unit or to maintain programming and services where insufficient funds are available. Upon approval of the Union, the term may be extended up to an additional four (4) weeks.

3.5 Refusal to Cross Picket Lines

All employees covered by this Agreement shall have the right to refuse to cross a picket line arising out of a labour dispute. Failure to cross a picket line encountered in carrying out an employer's business shall not be considered a violation of this Agreement, nor shall it be grounds for disciplinary action. Any employee not reporting for work as a result of this clause may have those hours deducted in wages by the employer.

3.6 Union Membership

Every employee who is now or hereafter becomes a member of the Union shall maintain membership in the Union as a condition of employment. Employer shall indicate the amount of union dues paid by each Union member on the T-4 slip.

3.9 New Employees

The employer will acquaint new employees with the fact that a Collective Agreement is in effect.

A representative of the Union shall be given a reasonable period of time during working hours to acquaint new members with the benefits and duties of union membership and to assist with the completion of the membership registration form.

3.10 Temporary Out-of-Scope Appointment

An employee who is temporarily filling an out-of-scope position shall continue to have union dues deducted from his/her pay cheque and shall be entitled to all benefits and rights for the first six (6) months.

After six (6) months he/she shall be entitled to all benefits and rights except seniority.

Employees shall be paid in accordance with Article 28.5. No employee shall be appointed to an out-of-scope position without his/her consent except in cases of emergency.

A Union representative will be consulted prior to, and during all, aspects of changes to programs and services that may directly affect staff. The Union may be invited to participate in meetings with funders. The Union shall be part of meetings involving employees affected by service changes.

The following principles will be followed in all situations where service provision is turned over to another community organization:

- a) The new employer will recognize the Union and the Collective Agreement.
- b) Employees will move with their jobs unless agreement is reached otherwise.
- c) If employees do not move with the work, the employer will make every effort to provide one of the following:
 - i. another acceptable job
 - ii. early retirement
 - iii. retraining and re-employment

3.15

Union and Management Communication

When meetings of the Union membership are required, a representative of the Union will notify either the Provincial or Branch Executive Director a minimum of two (2) weeks in advance to request members be granted time to participate. This is necessary for the purposes of maintaining program delivery standards, employee scheduling, clear communication, and the good faith relationship between the Union and Management.

Examples of such meetings include, but are not limited to, ratification votes and information meetings.

Management will make positive and reasonable concessions to enable Union members to participate in Union meetings as described above.

3.16 Management Information Presentations to Membership

In the interest of providing employees with as much information as possible when considering voting issues, opportunity will be provided to Management to present information to members prior to the vote.

The tone and approach of Management presentations shall be information only, and will not be coercive. Members will have opportunity to ask questions of Management for clarification.

In the event the employer merges or amalgamates with any other body, the employer endeavours to ensure, within their capabilities, that the Agreement goes with the employees.

4.5.1 Any employee who feels that he/she has been aggrieved or any employee with relevant grievance information shall receive permission from their supervisor to leave work temporarily without loss of pay, in order to discuss the complaint with the appropriate Union representative. If it is impossible to leave work immediately due to work requirements other arrangements shall be made on work time, as soon as possible.

4.5.2 A steward or elected officer of the Union shall receive permission to leave assigned duties temporarily in order to discuss those matters covered by the grievance procedure. The matter shall be dealt with as promptly as possible while on work time.

4.5.3 No employee, steward or elected Union Representative shall suffer loss of pay by reason of time spent with the employer to discuss grievances or complaints.

4.6 Procedure

Every effort shall be made to resolve problems through dialogue at the local level prior to filing a grievance. Attempts to resolve the dispute shall be done through a meeting with the Branch Executive Director or designate.

Both parties shall be required to provide full disclosure of all information regarding the dispute at each step of the Grievance Process.

At any stage during the Grievance Process the time limits may be extended by mutual agreement between the parties.

Step 1 – Filing a Grievance

Failing resolution of the dispute, the grievance shall be submitted, in writing, by the steward or SGEU Labour Relations Officer on behalf of the aggrieved to the Branch Executive Director or designate within thirty (30) calendar days of discovery of cause for a grievance.

The Branch Executive Director shall render a written decision to the SGEU Labour Relations Officer with a copy to the grievor and steward within fifteen (15) calendar days of receipt of the grievance.

If settlement is not reached at the Step 2 meeting, the Provincial Executive Director shall render the decisions in writing within fifteen (15) calendar days of the meeting.

Step 3 – Mediation

Either party may initiate a meeting for the purpose of resolving the grievance prior to or during the grievance, mediation or arbitration proceedings.

4.7 Deviation from Grievance Procedure

After a grievance has proceeded to Step 1 by the Union, the employer's representatives shall not enter into discussions or negotiations with respect to the grievance, either directly or indirectly with the aggrieved employee.

4.8 Failure to Act Within Time Limits

Should either party fail to adhere to the time limits, the onus is on that party to show a justifiable reason for its failure to adhere to the limits.

4.9 Changes to the Agreement

Any mutually agreed changes to the Collective Agreement shall form part of this Collective Agreement and are subject to the Grievance Procedure.

4.10 Access to Grievance Information from Employer

The employer shall provide to the Union or Steward relevant payroll information when requested in writing and accompanied by signed authorization of the employee concerned.

ARTICLE 5 MEDIATION

5.1 The best resolution to disagreements or disputes is a solution worked out between the parties.

The parties, by mutual agreement, may engage mediation services to resolve a grievance. The mediator will be agreed to by the employer and the Union, and the costs associated with the mediation process will be equally shared between the parties.

5.2 Selection of a Mediator

The parties will reach agreement on a mutually acceptable mediator as needed. If agreement cannot be obtained between the parties then either party can apply to the Minister of Labour to have a mediator appointed.

5.3 Role of the Mediator

The role of the mediator is to assist the parties to achieve a mutually acceptable resolution of the grievance.

5.4 Rules Applicable to Grievance Mediation

Any document provided prior to or during the mediation will be returned to the issuing party at the conclusion of the mediation process.

Settlements reached at mediation will not be considered a precedent or normal practice and will not be raised in support of any future grievance.

Anything said or done at mediation will not be used against the employer, employee, or the Union at any subsequent arbitration.

At any subsequent arbitration hearing or any hearing on the matter by the Labour Relations Board, the mediator will not be a witness.

No transcripts or records will be kept by the mediator other than the mediation occurred, when, where, the parties to the dispute and whether settlement was achieved.

Parties to the mediation will have the authority to conclude a settlement at mediation.

5.5 Grievance Mediation Process

The mediator will provide an introduction of the mediation process.

The process will be determined by the parties to the mediation with respect to the Collective Agreement, opportunities to comment, and meeting as a group or individually with the mediator.

If a settlement can be reached, the terms of the settlement will be put in writing, and signed by the parties.

If no agreement is possible, the mediator will verbally set out respective positions, and points of difference.

The mediator may shut down the mediation process if it appears resolution is unlikely.

ARTICLE 6 ARBITRATION

6.1 Selection of an Arbitrator

The parties will reach agreement on a mutually acceptable arbitrator as needed. If agreement cannot be obtained between the parties then either party can apply to the Minister of Labour to have an arbitrator appointed.

6.2 Procedure

The arbitrator shall determine the procedure, but shall give full opportunity to all parties to present evidence and make representations. The arbitrator shall, as much as possible, follow a layperson's procedure and shall avoid legalistic or formal procedure.

No grievance shall be defeated by any formal or technical objection and the arbitrator shall have the power to allow all pertinent information to the grievance and the power to waive formal procedural irregularities in the processing of a grievance, in order to determine the real matter in dispute and to render a decision according to equitable principles and the justice of the case.

In the event that an employee is called as a witness in the arbitration hearing, the employer shall grant leave and expenses which shall be applicable as follows:

- a) If called by the employer, leave without loss of pay and expenses paid by the employer.
- b) If called by the Union, leave in accordance with Article 26.1, and expenses paid by the Union.

The decision shall be final, binding and enforceable on all parties.

The arbitrator shall not have the power to change this Agreement, or to alter, modify or amend any of its provisions. Subject to the foregoing, the arbitrator shall have the power to dispose of the grievance by any arrangement that the arbitrator deems just and equitable.

Should the parties disagree as to the meaning of the arbitrator's decision, either party may apply to the arbitrator to clarify the decision.

6.4 Expenses of the Arbitrator

Both parties shall share the fees and expenses of the arbitrator, and any other common expenses, equally.

ARTICLE 7 RIGHT TO HAVE A STEWARD

Every employee has the right to be represented by a Union Steward of his/her choosing or Union Staff Representative at any meeting with the employer or investigative proceeding which might lead to discipline.

- a) Where the employer intends to meet with an employee for disciplinary purposes, the employee shall be so notified in writing or by email, in advance, the purpose of the meeting, and informed of the right to have a steward or SGEU Labour Relations Officer present at the meeting. The member will be given sufficient time to arrange union representation and if necessary to schedule for a later date.
- b) An employee may choose to waive the right to Union representation. This shall be done so in writing. If at any time during the meeting the employee chooses to rescind the waiver, the employee shall be given sufficient time to arrange Union representation, which may result in reconvening the meeting at a later time or date.

The employer recognizes the rights and responsibilities of the Health and Safety Committee as per The Occupational Health and Safety Act.

ARTICLE 30 HARASSMENT

30.1 Definition of Harassment

Harassment is defined as any unwelcome or unwanted action by any person against another, in particular by Management or a co-worker. It can be a verbal, non-verbal or physical action or a display of materials of a sexual or a non-sexual nature on a single or repeated basis, which humiliates, insults, degrades, threatens, or intimidates.

“Unwelcome” or “unwanted” in this context means any actions which the harasser knows or ought reasonably to know are not desired by the victim of harassment.

Harassment is an expression of perceived power and superiority by the harasser(s) over another person, usually for reasons over which the victim has little or no control.

30.2 Statement of Agreement by the Parties

To create a harassment-free workplace, the parties are committed to the joint development of pro-active programs to eliminate all forms of harassment. The parties further agree that harassment in the workplace will not be tolerated. All employees are encouraged to use this Policy prior to involving outside agencies.

30.3 Roles of the Parties

The Union will:

- a) Recognize that every member has the right to be treated with dignity and respect, and to work in a workplace free of harassment.
- b) Not condone or tolerate any harassment.
- c) Support and encourage its members to speak out and confront harassers.
- d) Defend their members when inappropriate disciplinary sanctions are imposed by the employer.

The employer will:

- a) Provide a workplace that is free from harassment.
- b) Recognize that in order to end harassment, it is necessary to confront and provide the opportunity to correct the harasser's behaviour. The employer, therefore, agrees to create an atmosphere where harassed persons will feel comfortable in bringing forward complaints and secure in confronting the alleged behaviour and/or harassment.

30.4 Complaints Procedure

30.4.1 Obligation

It is the responsibility of the employer to ensure that complainants and witnesses to harassment are protected from intimidation and/or repercussions after reporting incidents and during any investigation.

Protection may also be appropriate when effecting the final decision on a complaint.

30.4.2

Procedure for Handling Harassment Complaints

- a) All complaints of harassment shall be covered by this Article and dealt with in a serious manner.
- b) Leave, without loss of pay, shall be allowed by the employer for any proceedings under this Article.
- c) All proceedings under this Article are confidential. Breach of confidentiality shall be subject to disciplinary action.
- d) No information relating to the complainants or alleged harasser's personal background, lifestyle, mode of dress, etc., will be admissible during proceedings under this Article.
- e) In the event that the alleged harasser and the complainant are members of the Union, the employer agrees to allow each their right to Union representation.
- f) Nothing in this Article precludes the right of the complainant to take their complaint to any outside agency i.e. Human Rights Commission, SCAR, Ombudsman, MLA, MP, church, etc., at any time they deem appropriate.

Step 1 (Informal)

- a) Any complaint may be lodged in confidence with a Management official of their choice, or a formal complaint may be lodged directly at Step 2.
- b) Management will inform the alleged harasser of the complaint.
- c) The complaint shall be investigated in confidence and an honest attempt will be made to achieve resolution.
- d) If a satisfactory resolution is achieved, the process ends here.
- e) If no satisfactory resolution is achieved, then Step 2 is implemented.

Step 2 (Formal)

- a) A formal complaint shall be submitted concurrently in writing to Management and to the Union.
- b) Upon receipt of the written complaint, Management and the Union shall agree within to investigate the complaint. Management shall assume the costs of the investigator.

- c) The Investigator shall recommend to the employer whether the alleged harasser or complainant should be removed from the immediate workplace. It is agreed that as a general principle the alleged harasser be the one removed from the immediate assigned workplace. However, in exceptional circumstances (facts such as the emotional and mental health of the complainant), the complainant may be removed.
- d) An opportunity for all parties affected to be heard, will be provided in whatever manner is deemed appropriate by the Investigator.
- e) A response containing a decision and recommendations will be submitted in writing within twenty (20) days to the Union and Board. This time limit may be extended by mutual agreement between the Union and Management.
- f) The Investigator shall have jurisdiction to determine if there is harassment. If so, it shall recommend to the employer appropriate action, up to and including counselling, permanent removal from the workplace or other remedial/disciplinary action. They shall also recommend a time frame for implementation.
- g) The Board shall have the authority to determine whether a complaint is frivolous or vindictive, and to recommend the appropriate course of action in such cases.

As this process for the resolution of a complaint of harassment is similar to the grievance procedure, a complainant is precluded from using the grievance procedure in cases of a complaint of harassment.

APPENDIX B - FIRST TIME CONTRACTS

Employees hired into positions created by first-time term contracts of twelve months duration or less shall be paid the salary negotiated between the John Howard Society and the funding agency. However, the salary negotiated shall not be less than the base salary for the office manager position. The employer will meet with the Union in advance of the implementation of the program to explain and discuss the terms of the contract.

At the conclusion of the first term, the parties will meet and review the program and discuss whether the program will continue. A program change will be defined by a change to at least 25% of the duties in order to determine that a new contract situation exists. If the program is continued the employer and Union will negotiate which existing classification(s) the position(s) falls into or whether the creation of a new classification(s) is appropriate in accordance with Article 28.3. The incumbent in the position will be eligible for increments in accordance with this Collective Agreement. If the time lapsed between the project continuing on its second term is more than two months, the position will be posted for competition.

Yearly Increments

The employer agrees to implement the following formula for applying yearly increments.

Employees will be eligible for a one-half (1/2) increment after one year if:

1. They are/were in a half-time position.
2. They worked six (6) months full-time in a one year period.

This formula applies to staff employed as of April 3, 1992 and is restricted to the last two (2) years.

This formula is adopted without prejudice to any grievances the Union may have in regards to this issue.

APPENDIX C - EMPLOYEE AND FAMILY ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (EFAP)

Between
John Howard Society of Saskatchewan and
Saskatchewan Government and General Employees' Union

It is recognized by both parties that many health, social and personal problems can be successfully resolved and that professional assistance is in the best interest of the employee, Union and the employer.

It is therefore agreed that the two parties jointly establish and implement an Employee and Family Assistance Program.

1) JOINT LABOUR/MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

A Joint Labour/Management Committee, having equal representation from the Union and the employer, will be formed to develop the policy statements and operating guidelines of a new Employee and Family Assistance Program (EFAP).

Union and Management shall each appoint two appropriate representatives to the Joint EFAP Committee to ensure that it is capable of discharging its duties and responsibilities, as are jointly agreed upon.

This body shall be responsible to assist in and direct the development, implementation, and updating of the EFAP. They will also assist in the preparation and presentation of training, education and information activities within the EFAP to ensure stewards and supervisors are familiar with the objectives and procedures required to effectively implement the program.

The agreed upon number of persons engaged in the Joint EFAP Committee shall be given sufficient time, with no loss in pay, to perform program duties. The Joint Committee will meet quarterly.

2) OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the Employee and Family Assistance Program will be to encourage employees to voluntarily seek assistance for personal problems, and to assist those employees whose personal problems are adversely affecting their work performance.

- 3) The Committee shall select an independent agency as an advisor to the Committee and determine what range of services each employee will receive who accesses the EFAP.

4) PROGRAM ACCESS

Every permanent employee shall have access to the EFAP. Employees who hold temporary, part-time or casual status who have worked a consistent work pattern over a twelve (12) month period shall also have access to the Program.

Program benefits shall cease upon termination of employment.

5) EMPLOYEE RIGHTS

The fact that an employee has been accepted into the Program will not, by itself, jeopardize job security nor create discrimination in promotional opportunities.

Employees participating in the Program shall be entitled to all rights and benefits as provided in the current Collective Agreement, as well as to future Program benefits as agreed to be the Joint Union-Management Program.

6) CONFIDENTIALITY

Every effort will be made to retain confidentiality as to an employee's participation and the reason for an employee's involvement in the Program. Community agency treatment records, medical reports, or other reports arising from an individual's health assessment will be released only with the informed written consent of the employee.

7) EMPLOYEE RESPONSIBILITY

The decision to accept involvement in the Program is the personal responsibility of the employee. Employees participating in the Program will be expected to meet existing job performance standards and established work rules, except where, in the judgment of the agencies, those rules or standards are inappropriate to affect the resolution of the problem.

PROGRAM OPERATION

- 1) The service is designed to assist eligible employees and/or members of their immediate families (spouse or dependent children) who are experiencing personal difficulties and who choose to seek out the assistance on a voluntary basis.
- 2) No personal information that is given to the counsellor by an employee will be shared with any other source, either within the organization or the general community, without the written consent of the employee in question, unless required by law.
- 3) Employees may gain access to the service through voluntary or self-referrals, suggested referrals or mandatory referrals.

In the case of a voluntary referral, the employer is notified only that an employee has contacted the independent agency directly. Employees may also ask their employer, steward or other person to arrange the first appointment with the Agency. No entries are made in the employee's record and the strictest confidence is maintained. This is the most common and preferred type of referral.

If in the normal evaluation of performance, the employer has reason to believe that an employee has a personal problem that may adversely contribute to his/her work performance; the employer may suggest that the employee consider an interview with a counsellor. In such cases the written record of the interview may note that the suggested referral was made by the employer.

A mandatory referral is available to the employer when there is a documented case for disciplinary action or termination of an employee. If the employee rejects the offer of mandatory referral, the normal disciplinary procedures will resume. The mandatory referral must be fully explained to the employee in a face-to-face meeting with the employer. It must be emphasized that participation is still voluntary and that decisions related to continued employment must be based on job performance - not attendance or non-attendance at an EFAP.

In this instance, the employer will be informed only if the employee has attended counselling and is willing to seek assistance for the problem. No personal information about the employee or his/her problem is indicated to the employer.

- 4) While suggested or mandatory referrals may be used by the employer in dealing with an employee whose performance is in question, this is not an automatic step in the progressive disciplinary procedure.
- 5) The Agency will maintain a clearly neutral role in matters affecting the relationship between the employer and its employees. The Agency representatives will work within the frame of reference of the employer's EFAP design, but are primarily accountable to the Agency. These representatives cannot be required by the employer to act outside of the Code of Ethics of the profession, or the Policy of the Agency.
- 6) The Agency staff will be available during normal working hours to take referrals. An answering service is available at other times. Counselling to employees and their families is available during normal working hours. Where employees are not able to come during this time, arrangements will be made to see them in the evenings or on weekends.
- 7) The Agency undertakes the primary responsibility for the treatment of a troubled employee or family who requires service, or where appropriate referral to other services is indicated. In the case of referral, the counsellor tracks the matter sufficiently to establish that the employee is connected with the resource and provides follow-up services as required.
- 8) The Agency will provide periodic consultations for planning, monitoring, and evaluation of the service as decided between the Organization and the Agency. The rate is agreed on and outlined in the Contract.
- 9) The Agency will provide quarterly statistics and a program report on usage, type of problems and other items helpful for monitoring the program. Confidentiality will be maintained.
